MEMBER SOURCE MEDIA, LLC, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. CV-08-1321-EMC

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation would be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled under the applicable legal principles to treatment as confidential. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 10, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order creates no entitlement to file confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and reflects the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, employees, consultants, retained experts, and outside counsel (and their support staff).

2.2 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of the medium or manner generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, testimony, transcripts, or tangible things) that are produced or generated in disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

2.3 "Confidential" Information or Items: information (regardless of how generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under standards developed under F.R.Civ.P. 26(c).

2.4 "Highly Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only" Information or Items: extremely sensitive "Confidential Information or Items" whose disclosure to another Party or nonparty would create a substantial risk of serious injury that could not be avoided by less restrictive means.

2.5 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material

1 from a Producing Party.

2 2.6 Producing Party: a Party or non-party that produces Disclosure or
3 Discovery Material in this action.

4 2.7. Designating Party: a Party or non-party that designates information or 5 items produced in disclosures or in responses to discovery as “Confidential” or “Highly 6 Confidential— Attorneys’ Eyes Only.”

7 2.8 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is 8 designated as “Confidential” or as “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only.”

9 2.9. Outside Counsel: attorneys who are not employees of a Party but who 10 are retained to represent or advise a Party in this action.

11 2.10 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a Party.

12 2.11 Counsel (without qualifier): Outside Counsel and House Counsel (as 13 well as their support staffs).

14 2.12 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter
15 pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an 16 expert witness or as a consultant in this action and who is not a past or a current 17 employee of a Party or of a competitor of a Party’s and who, at the time of retention, is 18 not anticipated to become an employee of a Party or a competitor of a Party’s. This 19 definition includes a professional jury or trial consultant retained in connection with this 20 litigation.

21 2.13 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support 22 services (e.g., photocopying; videotaping; translating; preparing exhibits or 23 demonstrations; organizing, storing, retrieving data in any form or medium; etc.) and their 24 employees and subcontractors.

25 3. SCOPE

26 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected
27 Material (as defined above), but also any information copied or extracted therefrom, as 28 well as all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations thereof, plus testimony,

1 conversations, or presentations by parties or counsel to or in court or in other settings
2 that might reveal Protected Material.

3 4. DURATION

4 Even after the termination of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed
5 by this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing
6 or a court order otherwise directs.

7 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

8 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection.

9 Each Party or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this 10 Order must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under 11 the appropriate standards. A Designating Party must take care to designate for protection 12 only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that 13 qualify – so that other portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for 14 which protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this 15 Order.

16 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited.
17 Designations that are shown to be clearly unjustified, or that have been made for an 18 improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber or retard the case development 19 process, or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties), expose the 20 Designating Party to sanctions.

21 If it comes to a Party's or a non-party's attention that information or items 22 that it designated for protection do not qualify for protection at all, or do not qualify for the 23 level of protection initially asserted, that Party or non-party must promptly notify all other 24 parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

25 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in 26 this Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a), below), or as otherwise
27 stipulated or ordered, material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be 28 clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or produced.

1 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

2 (a) for information in documentary form (apart from transcripts of 3 depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party affix the 4 legend "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" at 5 the top of each page that contains protected material. If only a portion or portions of the 6 material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify 7 the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins) and must 8 specify, for each portion, the level of protection being asserted (either "CONFIDENTIAL" 9 or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY").

10 A Party or non-party that makes original documents or materials
11 available for inspection need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting 12 Party has indicated which material it would like copied and produced. During the 13 inspection and before the designation, all of the material made available for inspection
14 shall be deemed "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY." After the 15 inspecting Party has identified the documents it wants copied and produced, the 16 Producing Party must determine which documents, or portions thereof, qualify for 17 protection under this Order, then, before producing the specified documents, the 18 Producing Party must affix the appropriate legend ("CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY 19 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY") at the top of each page that contains 20 Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for 21 protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by 22 making appropriate markings in the margins) and must specify, for each portion, the level
23 of protection being asserted (either "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – 24 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY").

25 (b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial
26 proceedings, that the Party or non-party offering or sponsoring the testimony identify on 27 the record, before the close of the deposition, hearing, or other proceeding, all protected
28 testimony, and further specify any portions of the testimony that qualify as "HIGHLY

CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” Additionally, the Party or non-party offering or sponsoring the testimony must serve on all Parties, within 30 days of receipt of the transcript containing the testimony, written notification identifying the specific portions of the testimony as to which protection is sought and specifying the level of protection being asserted (“CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”). Only those portions of the testimony that are appropriately designated for protection within the 30 days shall be covered by the provisions of this Stipulated Protective Order.

Transcript pages containing Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter, who must affix to the top of each such page the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” as instructed by the Party or nonparty offering or sponsoring the witness or presenting the testimony.

(c) for information produced in some form other than documentary, and for any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” If only portions of the information or item warrant protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portions, specifying whether they qualify as “Confidential” or as “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only.”

5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to designate qualified information or items as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” does not, standing alone, waive the Designating Party’s right to secure protection under this Order for such material. If material is appropriately designated as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” after the material was initially produced, the Receiving Party, on timely notification of the designation, must make reasonable efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

6.1 Timing of Challenges. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party's confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, or a later significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

6.2 Meet and Confer. A Party that elects to initiate a challenge to a Designating Party's confidentiality designation must do so in good faith and must begin the process by conferring directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not sufficient) with counsel for the Designating Party. In conferring, the challenging Party must explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and must give the Designating Party an opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen designation. A challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge process only if it has engaged in this meet and confer process first.

6.3 Judicial Intervention. A Party that elects to press a challenge to a Confidentiality designation after considering the justification offered by the Designating Party may file and serve a motion under Civil Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5, if applicable) that identifies the challenged material and sets forth in detail the basis for the challenge. Each such motion must be accompanied by a competent declaration that affirms that the movant has complied with the meet and confer requirements imposed in the preceding paragraph and that sets forth with specificity the justification for the confidentiality designation that was given by the Designating Party in the meet and confer dialogue.

The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the Designating Party. Until the court rules on the challenge, all parties shall continue to afford the material in question the level of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's designation.

7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed or produced by another Party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order. When the litigation has been terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 11, below (FINAL DISPOSITION).

Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

7.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated CONFIDENTIAL only to:

(a) the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of record in this action, as well as employees of said Counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation and who have signed the "Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A;

(b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order" (Exhibit A);

(c) experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order" (Exhibit A);

(d) the Court and its personnel;

(e) court reporters, their staffs, and professional vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order" (Exhibit A);

1 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom
2 disclosure is reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Agreement to Be Bound
3 by Protective Order” (Exhibit A). Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to 4 depositions that reveal Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter
5 and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective
6 Order.

7 (g) the author of the document or the original source of the 8 information.

9 7.3 Disclosure of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”
10 Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the 11 Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated 12 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” only to:

13 (a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel of record in this action, as 14 well as employees of said Counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the 15 information for this litigation and who have signed the “Agreement to Be Bound by 16 Protective Order” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A;

17 (b) Experts (as defined in this Order) (1) to whom disclosure is 18 reasonably necessary for this litigation, (2) who have signed the “Agreement to Be Bound 19 by Protective Order” (Exhibit A), and (3) as to whom the procedures set forth in 20 paragraph 7.4, below, have been followed;

21 (c) the Court and its personnel;

22 (d) court reporters, their staffs, and professional vendors to whom 23 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the 24 “Agreement to Be Bound by Protective Order” (Exhibit A); and

25 (e) the author of the document or the original source of the 26 information.

27 7.4 Procedures for Approving Disclosure of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
28 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Information or Items to “Experts”

1 (a) Unless otherwise ordered by the court or agreed in writing by the
2 Designating Party, a Party that seeks to disclose to an "Expert" (as defined in this Order)
3 any information or item that has been designated "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
4 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" must give simultaneous or advance written notice to the 5 Designating Party that identifies (1) the specific HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL information
6 that the Receiving Party seeks to disclose to the Expert, and (2) the full name of the 7 Expert. Moreover, at some point prior to disclosure of the HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
8 information, the Party must provide the Designating Party with (1) the city and state of the 9 Expert's primary residence, and (2) a copy of that Expert's current resume.

10 (b) If the Designating Party objects to a disclosure of HIGHLY
11 CONFIDENTIAL information to an Expert, it must provide a written objection to the Party
12 seeking to disclose such information. If the Party has not yet provided the information to 13 its Expert, it must refrain from doing so. If it has already provided the information to its 14 Expert, the Party must inform the Expert that the Designating Party has objected to 15 disclosure, and that all copies of the HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL information, including any 16 electronic copies, and notes regarding the HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL information, must be 17 destroyed. The Party and the objecting Designating Party shall then, within two weeks of 18 the objection, meet and confer, either in person or telephonically, to resolve the dispute.
19 If no agreement is reached, the Party seeking to make the disclosure to the Expert may 20 file a motion as provided in Civil Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-21 5, if applicable) seeking permission from the court to do so. Any such motion must 22 describe the circumstances with specificity, set forth in detail the reasons for which the 23 disclosure to the Expert is reasonably necessary, assess the risk of harm that the 24 disclosure would entail and suggest any additional means that might be used to reduce 25 that risk. In addition, any such motion must be accompanied by a competent declaration
26 in which the movant describes the parties' efforts to resolve the matter by agreement 27 (i.e., the extent and the content of the meet and confer discussions) and sets forth the 28 reasons advanced by the Designating Party for its refusal to approve the disclosure.

In any such proceeding the Party opposing disclosure to the Expert shall bear the burden of proving that the risk of harm that the disclosure would entail (under the safeguards proposed) outweighs the Receiving Party's need to disclose the Protected Material to its Expert.

8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

If a Receiving Party is served with a subpoena or an order issued in other litigation that would compel disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY," the Receiving Party must so notify the Designating Party, in writing (by fax, if possible) immediately and in no event more than three court days after receiving the subpoena or order. Such notification must include a copy of the subpoena or court order.

The Receiving Party also must immediately inform in writing the Party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all the material covered by the subpoena or order is the subject of this Protective Order. In addition, the Receiving Party must deliver a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order promptly to the Party in the other action that caused the subpoena or order to issue.

The purpose of imposing these duties is to alert the interested parties to the existence of this Protective Order and to afford the Designating Party in this case an opportunity to try to protect its confidentiality interests in the court from which the subpoena or order issued. The Designating Party shall bear the burdens and the expenses of seeking protection in that court of its confidential material – and nothing in these provisions should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to disobey a lawful directive from another court.

9. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

10. FILING PROTECTED MATERIAL

Without written permission from the Designating Party or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in the public record in this action any Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5.

11. FINAL DISPOSITION

Unless otherwise ordered or agreed in writing by the Producing Party, within sixty days after the final termination of this action, each Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party. As used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other form of reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. With permission in writing from the Designating Party, the Receiving Party may destroy some or all of the Protected Material instead of returning it. Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the sixty day deadline that identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or destroyed and that affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or other forms of reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence or attorney work product, even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in Section 4 (DURATION), above.

12. MISCELLANEOUS

12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek its modification by the Court in the future.

12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.

IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.
